

I am opposed to BROADBAND OVER POWER LINE due to the obvious radio frequency interference this will cause to vital emergency communications. As an Amateur Radio Operator (K4NR), I have experienced considerable interference from normal power lines. Adding broadband data to powerlines will only make a bad situation worse. The FCC has promised to protect licensed users from more unregulated interference.